

Progress

Stations

Discussion

- What are some African American firsts in Oregon? Why do you think it is important to recognize these firsts?
- Do you think it's hard to be the first person to do something? Why?
- Portland's first African American teacher, Robert G. Ford, was hired to teach history in 1970. Do you think it would have been difficult for Ford to be the only African American teacher at his school? Explain.

Station #1-Education

Educate like...

Robert Ford, Cynthia Richardson and Geraldine Hammond

Directions: Teachers typically teach what they love and enjoy being constant learners. Each person in the group will TEACH the group about one thing they love! Example-video game, make-up, book series, being a pet owner,etc.

Station #2-Politics

Politic like....

Justice Adrienne Nelson, Jim Hill and Jackie Winters

Directions: In your group debate the following topics and choose one person to take notes during the debate.

Topics to debate:

- Nurture vs. Nature-Does your DNA or your experiences dictate more of your life?
- Religion in Schools-Do you think religion should be part of school curriculum?
- Social Media-Does social media make our lives better or worse?

Station #3-Business

Do business like....

Bertony Faustin, Kee, Okon Udosenata

Directions: Business owners see a need/want in their communities and then create a product. As a group create a mini business plan. You can create a new product/service or improve upon a product/service. The business plan should answer the following questions: What is your product, or service? Who will buy it? Where will you locate the business-city and state? What is your competition or other similar businesses? How much will you charge for the products or service? How much does it cost to make the product or provide the service?

Station #4-Medical

Doctor like.....

Dr. Gina Guillaume, Dr.Linda Moore and Dr. Fred Williams

Directions: Doctors are known for helping people. As a group discuss, and decide on an aspect of your school or community that needs help. Then create a plan to aid this part of your school or community.

Station #5-Athletics

Love sport like...

Larry Miller (Trailblazers), Ernie Kent (UO), and Fred Milton (OSU)

Directions: Create a new sport! The new sport must have 5 rules, include between 3-12 players and have specific cities where it will be played.

Station #6-Artists

Paint like Thelma Johnson Streat and Isaka Shamsud-Din,

Directions: Artists are wonderful at creating visuals of their feelings and experiences. Create a piece of art about the contributions of African Americans to Oregon history.

